

The background of the entire page is a dark, textured black surface. Overlaid on this are large, stylized, orange geometric shapes that resemble a repeating pattern of interlocking blocks or a modern architectural facade. These shapes are primarily rectangular with various cutouts and protrusions, creating a high-contrast, graphic design.

Letters to a Daughter

Something of mine you own and wear
 Curve of mouth, color of hair,
 And something else beyond a word
 That is not seen and is not heard,
 That is woven hard and true in the part of me that is a part of you.
 Something of you I keep and hold,
 An endless store of daughter gold,
 That makes you mine in a certain way.

Without a word of go or stay.

An everlasting ribbon of water,
 Made of mother and made of daughter.

Strong as stone and old and new,
 divided equally by two.

Open up the dirty window
Let the sun illuminate the words that you
Could not find

Reaching for something in the distance
So close you can almost taste it
Release your inhibitions
Feel the rain on your skin
No one else, No one else
Can feel it for you, Only you can let it in
No one else can speak the words on your lips
Drench yourself in words unspoken
Live your life with arms wide open
Today is where your book begins
The rest is still unwritten

Plus...More Stories, Facts and Games Inside!

First Lady of Civil Rights Movement Is Remembered

Coretta Scott King, the widow of Martin Luther King Jr., died on January 31 at the age of 78. She was a champion for civil rights, disability rights, women's rights and many other causes. As for bringing about great change, she has said, "You must change yourself so that you're prepared to lead people in the direction they should go."

Nazi Hunter Wiesenthal Dies

Holocaust survivor Simon Wiesenthal, who helped bring more than 1,100 Nazi war criminals to justice after World War II, died on September 20 at the age of 96. The United Nations declared January 27 as the first International Holocaust Remembrance Day. The date is significant in Holocaust history because it commemorates the liberation anniversary of Auschwitz, the Nazi death camp, in 1945.

Hurricane Katrina Strikes with a Vengeance

Hurricane Katrina slammed into the Gulf Coast with 140 mph, 10-hour winds on the morning of August 29. Katrina is reputed to be the most destructive and costliest natural disaster in U.S. history. Estimated costs are in the billions.

Subway Blasts Rock London

Three explosions on London subway tracks and a fourth explosion on a bus killed at least 52 and injured 700 people on July 7. Prime Minister Tony Blair suspected terrorists were responsible for the attacks.

G8 Pledges Relief

The group of eight industrialized nations (G8) comprised of Canada, France, Germany, Japan, Italy, United Kingdom, United States, and Russia, agreed to full cancellation of debt owed by 18 poor countries. In addition, G8 pledged to double its aid to Africa by donating $50 billion by the year 2010.

West Virginia Miners Remembered

Early on the morning of January 2, 2006, an explosion at the Sago Mine in West Virginia trapped 13 coal miners. The miners were 200 feet underground when the accident occurred. Twenty-seven-year-old Randal McCoy was the sole survivor.

Iraqis Cast Historic Votes

In December, the United Iraqi Alliance won the country's general elections, although it failed to gain an absolute majority in parliament. A coalition is likely to be formed with other ethnic groups including the Kurdish alliance. Iraqi Arabs also gained seats over the previous election. U.S. officials hope that legislative results from the elections will strengthen Iraq's government and help to move along the withdrawal of U.S. troops.

Change Is the Verdict for Supreme Court

On September 3, Supreme Court chief justice William Rehnquist died of thyroid cancer. Justice John Roberts was named as his replacement. On September 30, Sandra Day O'Connor, who had announced her retirement in July, agreed to stay until another justice was appointed.

Taking a Stand Meant Keeping a Seat

Rosa Parks, whose act of civil disobedience in 1955 sparked the modern civil rights movement, died October 24 at the age of 92. Parks was arrested after refusing to give up her bus seat to a white man in Montgomery, Alabama.

The World Says Goodbye to Pope John Paul II

➤ Pope John Paul II is credited with leading the world's approximately 1 billion Catholics for 26 years. Known as a champion for human freedom, the well-respected Pope died April 2 at the age of 84. On April 24, former Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger of Germany was installed as Pope Benedict XVI.

Palestinians Regain Gaza Strip

➤ Despite some resistance, most of the 17 Jewish settlements in the Gaza Strip were evacuated peacefully in mid-August. Israel plans to return control of the Gaza Strip to the Palestinians after an occupation that has lasted since the 1967 Six-Day War.

Gasoline Prices Caught Up in Hurricane Turmoil

➤ Damage caused by Hurricane Katrina reduced oil production for many facilities. Gas prices soared across the country and averaged about $2.60 nationwide. In the last year, gas prices increased 40 percent.

Mission: Successful

➤ With the touchdown of the Space Shuttle Discovery on August 9, NASA completed its first shuttle mission since Columbia broke apart during re-entry in February 2003. The mission was deemed successful, although Astronaut Steve Robinson made some repairs to the shuttle's exterior while in orbit.

Americans Among Nobel Prize Winners

➤ Two Americans and a German won the Nobel Prize in physics for pioneering research involving the behavior of light and its use for creating precise measuring techniques. Also, two Americans and a French scientist won the prize for chemistry with the development of a process that causes molecules to swap atoms. This molecular reaction is used to create medicines, plastics, and other products with more efficiency and less environmental hazard.

Women in Power

➤ Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, a Harvard-trained banker and survivor of Liberia's brutal politics, took the oath of office to become Africa's first woman to be elected female head of state. In Chile, Michelle Bachelet was elected as the country's first female president. Her first fulfilled campaign promise was splitting the Cabinet down the middle to equally represent both genders, and women were appointed to half of the 20 seats.

america responds to katrina victims

Through agencies including the American Red Cross, U.S. citizens responded to the needs of Hurricane Katrina victims. More than 2,500 troops of food, 4,500 team professionals, and 220,000 volunteers made their way to the Gulf coast. The Red Cross honored the special relief effort in its 125-year history to provide food, shelter, health care and relief supplies. Visit us at www.redcross.org.

Not from abroad the U.S. pulled together to aid victims in the Gulf coast. By collecting money, food and supplies, Red sent much medical relief to those in need. By the thousands, Red sent relief to those in need. Red sent relief to those in need. Red sent relief to those in need.

Hurricane Katrina caused many people to lose track of their loved ones—including their pets. When rescue teams found the badly injured, their families, many pets were stranded or left behind. Organizations from all over the country sent volunteers to rescue animals and provided medical care before reuniting them with their families. The Humane Society of the United States donated over $4 million in grants to aid rescue animal welfare organizations. The grants were distributed to groups already helping Hurricane Katrina.

A Really Old Story

Archaeologists revealed the final section of the earliest known Mayan mural. It dates back to 100 B.C. and tells the story of kings and their right to the royal title. The room-sized mural was discovered in 2001 in northeastern Guatemala and was finally completed for viewing in December 2005.

One Size Doesn't Fit All

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has come up with a revised version of the food pyramid called MyPyramid. This model for personal nutrition is based on your age, gender, and activity level. It allows for a more customized nutritional plan for each person. The USDA hopes the changed nutritional guidelines will address the growing obesity epidemic in the U.S.—1/3 of adults in this country are considered obese.

STEPS TO A HEALTHIER YOU

It's For the Birds

The Avian Flu (bird flu) has generated worldwide concern about its potential for spreading to humans. To date, the H5N1 virus strain has significantly affected more birds than humans, and millions of chickens and ducks have been killed in an attempt to prevent the virus from spreading. Although there has been concern about the flu reaching North America from Southeast Asia and sparking a pandemic, experts conclude that the virus has difficulty transmitting between people.

Up Close and Personal With a Comet

NASA's Deep Impact space probe smashed into a comet tail 100 miles from Earth on July 4 in an effort to reveal secrets of the solar system to scientists. The historic mission allowed scientists to take photos of the comet's surface. Information gathered may some day help determine when a comet if the Earth were ever threatened.

In the Fast Train

A new contender for the title of fastest train in the world is being tested by the East Asian Railway. The Fastech 360 is expected to carry passengers at a speed of 224 miles per hour, keeping the French TGV train's record by nearly 40 miles per hour. To stop quickly, the Fastech uses spoiler-type brakes that pop up from the roof to create wind resistance.

The Battle Against Malaria

Microsoft founder Bill Gates and his wife Melinda established a $25 million grant to launch Zambia's first nationwide effort to curb malaria. Zambia is a country located in southern Africa with a population suffering from malaria. The seven-year plan, aimed at reducing malaria deaths by 75 percent, is designed to get bed nets, medicines, and insecticides to 80 percent of Zambia's population. It is hoped that this model will help other African countries develop national malaria control plans.

To a Long Life

The life expectancy in the U.S. hit another all-time high at 77.6 years. When you compare this number to the 46.8-year expectancy of the early 1900s, you can see we've come a long way. Worldwide, the current life expectancy rate is 64.3 years. Areas with the highest life expectancies are Andorra, 83.5 years; San Marino, 82.1 years; Singapore, 81.6 years; and Japan, 81.1 years.

Set the Table: Treasures from Ancient Pompeii

On July 18, archaeologists displayed an ancient Roman banquet table that had been hidden for two millennia in the volcanic ash at Pompeii, Italy. The decorated cups and fine silver plates were found in 2000. Experts have spent the last five years restoring the pieces that were left behind by their owners as they fled the volcano of the Vesuvius.

$100 Million Field Trip to the Moon

Space Adventures, one of several privately funded companies in the space race, is selling around-the-moon jaunts for $100 million. Moon tourists could begin making trips as soon as 2008. SpaceShipOne, the world's first private space ship built last year to encourage space tourism, was unveiled at the Smithsonian Museum.

British Rescue Sub

The seven-man crew of a Russian mini-submarine was trapped in a depth of over 630 feet. After three days on the bottom of the Pacific Ocean, they finally made it back to port safely. British rescue officials said an unmanned sub to rescue the crew before their oxygen supply was nearly depleted.

Did Global Warming Fire Up the Hurricane Season?

Due to the ferocity of Hurricane Katrina, many people believe that global warming was responsible for the increased strength of the year's tropical storms. Today's hurricanes are undeniably stronger than the storms of 30 years ago. However, scientists are still divided over the claim that climate changes caused an intense storm season in 2005.

Stardust Space Probe Returns Home

It left seven years ago, traveled 2.8 billion miles and circled the sun twice. In January, NASA's Stardust space probe dropped a 100-pound capsule back to Earth with a tiny payload of comet and interstellar dust. Scientists believe the particles within the Stardust capsule remain from the formation of our solar system.

Still the Best Medicine

Ga ahead and laugh... It's good for you! Researchers showed a group of moviegoers both funny and distressing clips, and then tested the physical effects of each. Laughter increased blood flow 22 percent in test subjects, and their blood flow decreased 35 percent while stressed.

Mummy, My Eyes are Dry

In an effort to study ancient diseases, a team of scientists in California restored the eyes of two Chilean mummies. One eye came from a 2-year-old boy who died 1,000 years ago. The other eye belonged to a 23-year-old woman who died about 750 years ago. Both bodies were naturally preserved in Chile's arid Atacama Desert.

World Health Organization Confirms New Polio Case

In July 2005, a 15-month-old girl from the east African nation of Somalia was diagnosed with polio, a paralyzing disease. Previously, polio had been wiped out of Somalia since 2002. The return of the disease in 12 African countries has been linked to the failure of the Nigerian authorities to complete an immunization program in 2003.

Mending a Broken Heart

Johns Hopkins University researchers studied stress cardiomyopathy, often mistaken for a heart attack. Known as broken heart syndrome and associated with the loss of a loved one, researchers found that it's caused by a surge of adrenaline and other stress hormones that temporarily stun the heart.

the best of innovation

With the look of a cool motorcycle, the BMW iCT is actually more like a robot that runs on a hydrogen-powered fuel cell. The 200-pound aluminum bike weighs up to 50 more pounds and then weighs in at 140 when you're 34 pounds of hydrogen. The BMW iCT is a real-life robot that's only 200%.

The Slingbox, created by Sling Media, lets you watch your home TV and listen to your local TV programming for just a few bucks. It's the best way to watch TV in the cloud. All you need is a broadband connection.

Protein pills. The world's first protein pills, Proline, are the only ones that are made from real protein. They're made from real protein, not just protein powder. Proline is the only protein pill that's made from real protein.

Long-Shot Giacomo Wins Derby

With 50-1 odds, a Kentucky Derby win for Giacomo (pronounced Jock-ah-mo) seemed highly unlikely. Yet, he beat 19 others to grab the lead in the final strides of the race. He won by a half-length over 71-1 Closing Argument. It was the second biggest upset ever in the 131-year history of the race.

Tiger and Phil Win Majors

Tiger Woods won the Masters for the fourth time, bringing him to a tie with Arnold Palmer's record. Tiger also claimed victory in the British Open, his tenth major career championship. Phil Mickelson made his mark by winning the PGA Championship by one stroke. The win was Phil's second career major.

88 Years in the Making

For the first time in 88 years, the Chicago White Sox won the World Series championship by beating the Houston Astros in a four-game sweep. The White Sox hadn't won a Series since 1917 and had not played in one since 1993.

Lemieux Retires Again

Mario Lemieux said goodbye to hockey a second time on January 24, 2006, after retiring in 1997 and making a comeback in 2000. The Pittsburgh Penguins center hadn't played in many games due to illness, injury and the players' strike. Lemieux wasn't the only player to miss last season. The NHL is the first North American sports league to lose a year because of a labor dispute. A new labor agreement that was reached in July ended the lockout.

Federer Wins It All

Roger Federer defeated Andre Agassi on September 11 to win his second straight U.S. Open title. In July, Federer beat Andy Roddick for his third straight Wimbledon title. He's the first man in the Open era, which started in 1968, to win Wimbledon and the U.S. Open back-to-back in consecutive years.

The Tony Award

NASCAR driver Tony Stewart won his second championship cup for the most points. Stewart finished fifteenth in the final race and ran steadily for the entire season. He edged out Greg Biffle and Carl Edwards for this year's cup.

Danica Tears Up the Track

At the age of 23, Danica Patrick stole the show at the Indianapolis 500 and nearly grabbed the biggest purse in auto racing. Although she ended up finishing fourth, she claimed the best finish by a female driver and she also was the first female to lead a lap. Englishman Dan Wheldon won over $1.5 million in the May 21 race.

Monarchs Take the Sun

After sweeping the first two rounds of the playoffs, the Sacramento Monarchs faced the only team to sweep them in the regular season, the Connecticut Sun. The difference came down to the identical defensive pressure the Monarchs applied, which forced many turnovers from the Sun. The Monarchs claimed the champion title, three games to one.

Olympic Hopefuls Spark Excitement

Torino, Italy, was full of talented athletes determined to bring home the gold during the 2006 Winter Olympics. Speed skater Chad Hedrick, skier Jeret "Speedy" Peterson, and figure skaters Michelle Kwan and Sasha Cohen all excelled in their sports to earn their places in Italy. Nineteen-year-old Hannah Teter also sought the gold in snowboarding's Women's Halfpipe event. Although Torino was only the third Olympic appearance for snowboarding events, the sport was a popular one to watch.

302 for Lilly

U.S. Women's National Soccer Team captain, Kerri Lilly roared as impressive machine when she played in her 302nd international game in January. The game was played in Guangzhou, China, and the U.S. Women gained a victory over China. Lilly was also a member of the 1996 and 2004 Olympic gold medal teams.

Williams Tops Davenport at Wimbledon

In a career comeback, Venus Williams beat top-ranked Lindsay Davenport on July 2, for her fifth major title—and her first in nearly four years. Williams won Wimbledon in 2000 and 2001, and was runner-up to sister Serena in 2002 and 2003.

Spurs Dethrone Pistons

The San Antonio Spurs dethroned the Detroit Pistons on June 23 with an 81-74 win to claim the NBA championship. Tim Duncan earned his third Finals MVP and San Antonio picked up its third title in seven years, denying Detroit a chance to repeat its win from last year.

The Yellow Jersey Rides Again

Lance Armstrong made Tour de France history by winning the world's toughest race for a record-setting seventh year in a row. He was also awarded the AP Male Athlete of the Year honor for the fourth consecutive year. Armstrong, a cancer survivor, founded the Lance Armstrong Foundation in 1997. The foundation's mission is to inspire and empower people with cancer to LIVE STRONG through education, advocacy, public health and research programs.

Annika Wraps Up a Dynamite Season

Annika Sorenstam was the top PGA golfer with 10 wins out of 20 starts. She was the first woman in 19 years to capture the first two legs of the Grand Slam by winning 10 times on the PGA Tour. Annika was also selected to be the AP Female Athlete of the Year for the third year in a row.

Teen Phenom

Sixteen-year-old Michelle Wie's phenomenal career as an amateur golfer ended in October when she turned pro. In her first act as an PGA member, she donated $500,000 to the U.S. Golf Hurricane Relief Fund.

Steelers Win Fifth Super Bowl Title

The Pittsburgh Steelers beat the Seattle Seahawks 21-10 to win Super Bowl XL. An average of 45.85 million homes tuned into the game to make it the most-watched Super Bowl since 1996. The Super Bowl MVP title was awarded to Hines Ward, who caught five passes for 123 yards and completed a touchdown pass for the Steelers. In only two months' time, the Pittsburgh Steelers went from playoff long shots to Super Bowl Champions.

Before 1859, baseball umpires sat in padded chairs behind home plate.

Shaquille O'Neal wears a supersized shoe—size 22.

During World War II, many of the league's players were called to serve their country. In order to have enough players, the Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles combined to play as the Steagles.

The 1912 Olympics were the last Olympic games that winners received gold medals made entirely of gold.

Golf balls were originally made out of wood, then they were made of leather and stuffed with feathers.

With hockey pucks reaching speeds of 150 miles per hour, it's amazing that the first NHL goalie didn't wear a mask until 1959.

After a pit stop, racecar driver Lee Petty once drove a full lap at full speed with a pit crew member still on the hood.

Squirt Alert

A fisherman in Maine snagged an unusual life form while dredging for scallops in deep water. Known as a squirt, it resembles blobs of pancake batter and is not normally found in open water. The squirt has no known predator and smothers any plant or animal that doesn't get out of the way.

Massive South Asia Earthquake

A powerful, magnitude 7.6 earthquake shook the Pakistan-India border region on October 8 and triggered massive landslides that buried mountainside villages. This earthquake originated only about 6.2 miles beneath the earth's surface, which is shallow compared to most earthquakes. The earthquake's shallow nature caused the ground to shake far more violently compared to similar earthquakes that occur deeper in the earth's crust. Over 80,000 died and millions were left homeless as a result.

Dynamic Dinosaur Discoveries

Scientists are using fossils and new technology to learn how dinosaurs lived and died 77 million years ago. The fossil of a duck-billed dinosaur, nicknamed "Leonardo," was discovered in Montana almost completely intact about four years ago. Now researchers can use the latest tools, such as CT scans and supercomputers, to learn how dinosaurs stood, moved and ate.

Dogs Sniff Out Sickness

A new study reported that dogs can detect if a person has cancer by smelling his or her breath. With only a few weeks of training, the dogs could distinguish between patients with lung or breast cancer and healthy patients. Researchers are hopeful that the dogs could help with early detection, which greatly improves survival chances for cancer patients.

Feeling the Heat

On October 6, crews battled a 6,000-acre wildfire that was fanned by the dry Santa Ana winds in California. The blaze had threatened about 100 homes in a sparsely populated area about 60 miles east of Los Angeles. In Oklahoma, drought conditions added to the fire problems as more than 400,000 acres were covered along with 250 homes and businesses.

Rare Crab Find

An extremely rare type of crab pulled from the Chesapeake Bay in late spring was found to be part male and part female. Crabbers know that male crabs have blue claws and female crabs have red claws. This male-female crab had one claw of each color, along with all of the characteristics of both genders. The last report of a male-female crab was in 1979.

Flying Back From Extinction

The spectacular ivory-billed woodpecker, long believed to be extinct, was spotted in the Big Woods region of eastern Arkansas. With a wingspan that is nearly 3 feet wide, it is one of the world's largest woodpeckers. The last previous confirmed sighting of this bird was in 1944.

World War II Airman Found in Glacier

Two climbers discovered an ice-encased body while taking 13,710-foot Mount Meru in California on October 16. The man's body, found within the Sierra Nevada glacier, is believed to be an airman whose plane crashed in 1942. The man was found wearing a World War II-era parachute. The wreckage from the plane and four other bodies were discovered in 1947.

A New Mammal in Borneo?

Scientists investigated whether a red-furred mammal, about the size of a house cat, is in fact a new species. A nighttime camera trap captured an image of the creature in Borneo's rainforest. If it is a new species, it would be the first new mammal species found on the Southeast Asia island in over a century.

The Tenth Planet

Astronomers have found a new planet beyond Pluto, in the outer reaches of our solar system. The yet-unnamed planet is thought to be 1.5 times bigger than Pluto and about 2 billion miles further away. Other planet-like objects in our system have been found by the same astronomers, but to date none of them have been defined as planets.

Great Apes in Danger

As few as 350,000 apes remain in the wild and the United Nations Environmental Programme (UNEP) believes they could become extinct within 50 years due to poverty, disease, hunting and logging in the areas where apes live. The UNEP also reported that almost half of the apes' habitat in Malaysia is expected to disappear within 5 years if current building trends continue.

The Name Game

The Washington, D.C., National Zoo's giant panda cub was given the name Tai Shan, meaning peaceful mountain, 110 days after his birth on July 9. As part of Chinese custom, panda bears are not named until after their first 100 days of life. Tai Shan's name was decided by popular vote—the winning name received 44 percent of 200,000 votes cast on the zoo's Web site.

Window to the Sea

In November, the world's largest indoor aquarium opened in Atlanta, Georgia. The Georgia Aquarium includes interactive stations and touch tanks for visitors to enjoy. This aquarium holds over 8 million gallons of water and more than 100,000 animals representing 500 species. It's a huge leap in size over the next largest aquarium—Chicago's Shedd Aquarium has 21,000 animals and 5 million gallons of water.

Dwindling Tigers

In a countrywide census, India launched its biggest survey ever to count the tiger population. The effort focused on national parks and reserves where scores of tigers have gone missing due to poachers and illegal fur traders. Experts estimate that there are only 3,500 tigers left, compared with a count of 40,000 tigers roaming around 100 years ago.

Brave Honey Bees

Researchers from several U.S. universities have trained honey bees to locate the vapors of buried land mines. The bees follow the vapor plume of mines until the source is reached. The bees are also light enough not to set off the mines, and bee training is usually completed in only one or two days.

A Game of Logic

Have you caught the Sudoku bug? Millions across the globe are consumed with Sudoku fever. Men, women, boys and girls, young and old alike, have helped to spread this numerical phenomenon. Touted by some to be the best thing since the Rubik's Cube, this game is based on pure logic—no math skills are necessary.

Sudoku (pronounced soo-doe-koo) hails from Japan, where the name is short for “suji wa dokushin ni kagiru” meaning “only single numbers allowed.” Even though it became hugely popular in the summer of 2005, it originally hit the United States in 1979 when it first appeared in Dell Pencil Puzzles and Word Games magazine.

Object of Sudoku:

Fill the grid with numbers so that every row, every column, and every 3x3 box contains every digit from 1 to 9, without repeating a digit.

To find the answers to these puzzles, log on to our Web site, <http://yearbooks.lifetouch.com>. You'll find the answers by clicking on the Zoom Sudoku icon.

Try your hand at the three puzzles below (courtesy of www.free-sudoku.net). If you're new to Sudoku, you'll want to start with the Easy puzzle first to get the hang of it. For those of you with more advanced skills, try to see how fast you can complete the Medium and Hard puzzles!
